The Mayor's Veto Message.

We are happy to perceive that the Mayor has vetoed the Ordinance of the City Council delegating to themselves the power to fill vacancies that may occur in the City offices, and thus deprive the people of their dearest right, that of the elective franchise. The arguments of the Mayor, in his veto message, are sound and incontrovertible. The only reason that was attempted to be urged against them, was offered by one of the Assistant Aldermen, who seemed to think that his Honor had assumed a fearful responsibility in putting the city to the terrible expense of several thousands of dollars, which must be incurred in an election by the people to fill the seat of one of the Aldermen now vacant. The gentleman's arithmetic was sadly at fault. Instead of several thousands of dollars being required, about five hundred would pay the entire expenses of such an election. Fifteen inspectors, judges and clerks would be needed to superintend the polls and count the ballots. There are hundreds of "good men and true," who would gladly perform this duty at the expense each of twenty dollars per day, and the whole work would be accomplished in a single day. Here, then, is an expense of three hundred dollars, full one-half of the whole amount necessary to be incurred. But even admitting that as many thousands should be required, that fact would afford no good reason for the Common Council to wrest from the people their right to choose their own legislators, and arrogate to themselves this high and important prerogative.—We therefore, repeat, that we are glad the Mayor has assumed the position indicated by his message, and doubt not that his action in this matter will meet the decided approbation of all our citizens who have not some personal or political interest to subserve by the adoption of a contrary course.

Safety of the Sarah Sands.

Our citizens were most agreeably surprised, yesterday, by the receipt of intelligence of the Sarah Sands, and that her numerous passengers were well provided with all necessary comforts, considering her unfortunate detention by a constant succession of head winds.

The news was brought to this city by F. W. Rice, Esq, associate of Mr. Crane, in the projected Whig paper, and Mr. R. S. Brown, who, overcoming obstacles, and enduring hardships enough to appal the stoutest hearts, reached this city in four days from St. Simeon, about seventy miles below Monterey, where she put in, having exhausted her supply of coal in an attempt to make this port by a long tack to the westward.

When the Sands made the little harbor where she now lies, she had but a few tons of coal left. At St. Simeon, there is no settlement—nothing to indicate that a human being had ever resided there, except a single deserted house. How far it was to a habitation was entirely unknown, but it was important to the welfare of the vessel and the four hundred souls on board, to convey information of their situation, that relief might be sent to their aid.

Under these circumstances, Messrs. Rice and Brown volunteered to cross the San Antonio mountains of the coast range, and reach this place, a distance of over three hundred miles by the route traveled. A search was made by a large number of passengers for a trail, without success, and on the next day, Messrs. Rice, Brown, W. A. Lighthall and —— Thompson, started on this hazardous excursion, with five days provisions, and their blankets on their backs. Five miles out, they fortunately struck a trail, and after 36 hours journey over terrible mountains and ravines, reached the ranch of Don Mariano Soberana. With some difficulty, horses were procured at the mission of san Antonio, ten miles further on, and in sixteen hours, without change of horses, these indefatigable and generous-hearted men rode into Monterey, a distance of one hundred and five miles. On the succeeding day, (Thursday,) horses were purchased, and the distance to San Jose, 85 miles, made by a little after midnight Yesterday, at half past twelve, these messengers of good tidings reached San Francisco, having been four days since leaving the vessel, and performing nearly forty miles on foot, through almost trackless wilds.

Want of space compels us to omit many interesting details given us by Mr. Rice. Suffice it that there has been no suffering for supplies. Capt. Thompson is spoken of in terms of the highest praise for his considerate care of his passengers, and all agree that to no lack of foresight or seamanship is the delay of the Sarah Sands attributable, but solely to the strong northerly winds. We give, this morning, a list of the passengers on board.

A vessel with coal will sail this afternoon, and the steamer may be confidently looked for in eight or ten days at farthest.

THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—In addition to what we stated yesterday in relation to the disappearance of a lady from the Gov. Tompkins, on her passage to this port, we are informed that, immediately upon her arrival here, her captain was dismissed, and another officer placed in charge and that it was not till recently that the facts stated were disclosed by an examination of the logbook. The lady came on board at Lima, but there is nothing to show what was her name, or any other circumstance by which to trace her friends. The agent, H. Morrison, Esq, and present officers, had no knowledge of the affair, which is still wrapped in mystery. We have an extract from the log, and several other facts, which tend to confirm the belief that there was foul play. The woman had three trunks, in which were some $1500 of jewelry when she came on board, but which could not be found when an examination was made, a day or two since by an officer of the Custom House We think this matter ought to be examined into by the authorities.

☞ Want of room compels us to abridge the proceedings of the Council last night.

The Galphin Claim.

It will be recollected that the last dates from Washington brought intelligence that George W. Crawford, Secretary at War, had been accused of malfeasance in office in connection with the payment of the Galphin Claim. For what particular action the charge is made against him, does not appear: but we presume, from the statements of the newspapers, that, as counsel for the claimants, or as a party interested in the claim, he is presumed to have used the influence of his office to secure the payment.

The history of the claim is this: In 1773, the Indians of Georgia ceded lands to the British Government of about four millions of acres, in trust to pay certain traders. Commissioners were appointed under the trust, but before the trust was executed, the war of the Revolution commenced. Galphin, one of the traders, joined the cause of America—the others, the side of Britain. The British Government paid the latter both principal and interest. Galphin applied also, but was refused on the ground that he had not remained true to British interests.

In the mean time Georgia disposes of these trust lands by giving them as bounty to soldiers, &c. Upon the application of Galphin to her Legislature for payment, she admits the appropriation, and the justice of the claim; but as she had ceded her public domain, the territory now forming Alabama and Mississippi, to the United States, and had appropriated the trust lands to aid the cause of Independence, she thought the General Government should relieve her of the debt. This was finally done by act of Congress in 1848. The act reads thus: "That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby authorized and required to examine and adjust the claim of the late George Galphin, under the treaty made by the Governor of Georgia with the Creek and Cherokee Indians in the year 1773, and to pay the amount which may be found due to Milledge Galphin, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated." Under this law Mr. Walker, towards the close of President Polk's Administration, paid the principal, £9,691 15s. 5d., reserving the claim for interest for further consideration. He left the matter unsettled, but since the present Administration came into power, the interest has been paid.

Ordinance for the payment of the reward offered for the arrest and delivery of Withers, was taken up and passed.

Adjourned until Wednesday evening.

The Veto Message.

Gentlemen of the Common Council:

On the twentieth instant the following Ordinance was presented to me for my approval:

"The People of the City of San Francisco do ordain as follows:

"All vacancies occuring in the Board of Aldermen, or the Board of Assistant Aldermen, by reason of the death or resignation of any member thereof, or ineligibility of any person elected to either of said Boards, or otherwise, shall be filled by an election on joint ballot of said Boards, and the person or persons receiving the majority of votes at such election, shall be declared elected.

"The time and place of such election shall be fixed by a concurrent resolution of said Boards; and for such election, the two Boards shall assemble together in convention, over which the President of the Board of Aldermen shall preside."

The well known axiom in a republican government, that, from the people is derived all political power, is no where made more conspicuous than in the Constitution and laws of California; and in few, if in any of the States of the American Union, have the people delegated to the legislative and executive branches of the government so limited a portion of their power as in this State. Hence, where there is so manifest a desire on the part of the people to retain all power except that which is absolutely necessary to be surrendered—where jealous watchfulness has thrown around those to whom the exercise of power has been entrusted so many and such stringent guards, it becomes the paramount duty of a public officer, placed in an important post, to use his utmost endeavors to prevent all infringement of the rights of the people; and especially to avoid on his part, even the semblance of a desire to take from them the power of choosing those who are to govern them, and with whom they are to come so nearly in contact as with the legislative department of a municipal corporation like ours.

The Charter of the City of San Francisco is not a primary delegation of power; and the corporate authority, like the power given to courts of inferior jurisdiction, is strictly limited to the clearly expressed intention of the legislature. And it is a fundamental rule of construction, that, whenever any ambiguity arises in a statute, the decision shall be in favor of natural right. It is also a well settled principle, that when there is a doubt as to what construction should be given to a particular section, the intention of the legislature may be sought in other parts of the same Act.

With these principles as guides, I proceed to consider the Ordinance before me; and on this subject the language of the Charter is as follows:

Article II, Sec 3.—"All vacancies that occur shall be filled by election, in such manner as shall be prescribed by Ordinance."

It seems to have been inferred that this section confers the power upon the Council to declare by Ordinance who shall be the electors qualified to fill "all vacancies." The exercise of such power is opposed to the theory of our government, and the right thereto was never, by the Legislature, intended to be delegated. The people are the electors. The power to determine who shall fill elective offices is their right, and it cannot legally be taken from them. No act, therefore, ever passed by the Legislature, could have been intended to disfranchise any citizen entitled to the right of suffrage. If there was no guide in other parts of the Charter to the true construction of the language here used, then a doubt might exist as to what was the intention of the Legislature; for the word "manner" in this section, as in other parts of the Charter, is somewhat inapt to convey a clear and distinct meaning as to that intention; and in that case, the ambignity would indicate that the election should be by the people as their natural right. But it seems to me there is no ambiguity when the whole Act is taken together. It will be found that in no other part of the Charter is there any provision for filling vacancies in any of the various offices of the city. Thus, then, so far from applying exclusively to the office of Alderman, looks to the filling of all vacancies that may happen in the city offices where elections have been held by the people.

By Section 5, Article II, it is provided, that, "At all elections of city officers the voters shall vote by ballot, and only in the wards where they respectively reside." And again by Section 9, of the same Article,—"All elections for city officers shall continue but one day, and during that day, from sun rise until sun set the polls shall not be closed under any pretext whatsoever." And the whole tenor of the Act clearly indicates that it was the intention of the Legislature to insure to the people of this city a right to elect their own officers, and in the event of vacancies to fill them in like manner. The word "election" in the Section under consideration is the distinctive word, and indicates the act to be done. It is for the Common Council to determine the time when, and place where, the election is to be held—to appoint Inspectors, and in all other things to direct the course of the election.

Were it otherwise, it is a supposable case, that, before the close of the fiscal year, the city may be under the government and direction of men whom the people had not, and perhaps never would have selected for that office. Nay, every officer elected by them, for some cause, may have vacated his office, and a new set of men, whom the people might never have chosen, may be found in charge of the public affairs.

It is manifest the Legislature never could have intended to give this power to the Common Council. The whole tenor of the Charter bears testimony to the contrary.

Furthermore:—by Section 6, Article XI of the Constitution of the State, it is declared that, "All officers whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, and all officers whose offices may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the people, or appointed as the Legislature may direct." Not that the Legislature may direct others to direct. The Legislature may direct how the election shall be had; but it has no power to delegate that direction to another body, any more than a Judge can delegate his power and authority to another person to perform the functions of the judicial office.

The office of Alderman for the city of San Francisco is an office "created by law." So then, neither the Legislative enactment, nor the Constitution, allows the privilege of electing their own officers to be withdrawn from the people; and if this be so, the construction given to this section of the Charter is erroneous and ought not to be sustained.

While, therefore, it is equally my pleasure and duty to unite with the Common Council in all measures calculated to promote the public welfare, I feel myself compelled, for the foregoing reasons, to withhold my approbation of the aforesaid Ordinance. I therefore return it with my objections. (Signed)

JOHN W. GEARY, Mayor.

Mayor's Office, May 24, 1850.

MARIPOSA DIGGINGS, May 12, '50.

About three weeks since a party of six men went out "prospecting," and after they had gone some distance they agreed to divide into parties of two, search the country around and meet here again in a few days to report to each other. The following night two of the party, named Forbes and Smith, built a large fire and lay down with their blankets around them and their rifles by their side. They lay undisturbed until near dawn when they were suddenly awakened by being shot through the legs with arrows. They rose up and saw ten Indians a little way off, and although they could not stand, they levelled their rifles and two of the Indians fell. After stopping the flow of blood they inverted their rifles and used them as crutches, and hobbled on towards the settlement.

On the second day Smith gave out; his companion was not for leaving him, but he entreated him not to lie down and perish with him, but to push on and save himself if he could. They divided their provisions and Forbes bid his comrade adieu. The next day towards evening he reached the settlement, tired and exhausted. The news spread rapidly, and the next morning a party of twenty-five started out after Smith, guided by Forbes who was able to ride on horseback. After travelling 14 miles they found Smith, where his companion had left him, alive but much exhaused, he having been shot with five arrows. The party brought him in but could not find the Indians. I am happy to say that Forbes has quite recovered, but it is feared Smith will be crippled for life.

The Indians are becoming troublesome—they have been stealing mules and horses for a long time in this vicinity and this is the seond a tack they have made upon lone parties, having captured a man about seven miles out a few days previous to this attack. It is feared the red man's swift winged arrow, his rude tomahawk or savage scalping knife, will be the messenger of death to many a brave heart before the season is over.

On the 16th ult., a bloody tragedy was enacted here, which resulted in the death of a young man, named Marcey, of Massachusetts. A man named Messick accused the deceased of robbing him of $700 last winter, while on a drunken frolic together Messick had armed himself with a double barreled shot gun, heavily charged with buck shot, and was on the look out for Marcey. They met, and some words took place between them, when Messick enquired of the other if he was armed, to which he replied that he was. Messick then ordered him to defend himself, and in the most cowardly manner cocked his gun, while Marcey was telling him that he would fight him in a fair fight, but not that way—he was only armed with a revolver. Messick then took deliberate aim and fired both barrels, completely riddling Marcey, and killing him instantly, several shot passing directly through his heart Messick immediately put off and I believe has not been heard of since.

Now for the golden stories which you will of course expect. As for the Mariposa Diggings they are nearly deserted on account of the high water, which it is expected will hardly fall so as to allow miners to work to any advantage, before August or September. A few have been and are still doing tolerably well, while the great majority have not been able to make enough to pay their necessary expenses.

As an evidence of what is doing here I will give you the result of my own past week's labor, which I believe will equal the average success. I have worked five days in company with two others, and we have cleared two large holes ten feet square, and are at work on the third, —half the time in water over boot top, with a pump going steadily at that; and we three have taken out four dollars each

At Agua Frio, six miles west of this place they are doing rather better, averaging from five dollars to half an ounce per day. Last week a party of three took out a lump weighing ten pounds less one ounce, and another a three pound lump. But this side of the picture is talked of by every one, while the dark side is seldom thought of, and the story is never told that these very same men perhaps have been living for weeks, probably months, in the most wretched poverty and squalid misery, having spent their all in order to reach this land of "flap jacks and gold dust!"

RAMBLER.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.

GEN. WINCHESTER, will please allow me a few lines in the News of Saturday simply to say, that in reply to the impotent and infamously malicious personal philippic made against me in the Journal of Commerce, of this morning, I will have a word or two to say on Monday, in which I shall probably prove that one side of a story is always very current till the other is related.

H. H. ROBINSON.

BISHOP OF MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA.—The Catholic Telegraph, of Cincinnati, states that the ill health of Father Montgomery, O. S. D., will compel the nomination of another person to the See of Monterey.

SOMETHING WORTHY OF NOTICE.—The additions making to our population by the arrivals from the "other side," is manifesting itself in the increased animation in the business circles. We were gratified at the indications shown yesterday in the extensive sale of goods by Moore, Folger & Hill, amounting to some $40, or $50,000, at advanced rates for almost all descriptions, especially of the better qualities of merchandize, for which the bidding was brisk.

Another sale of rare and valuable articles takes place to-day, by these popular auctioneers, among which are some splendid mirrors, &c., suitable for the adornment of the many beautiful cottages that are rising up in our midst. The number of ladies arriving from the States to join their husbands here, will create a demand for articles of furniture, as well as introduce an improvement in the social condition of things in California. A reference to the auction head will give more particular information of this sale.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

SAN FRANCISO MARKETS.

Friday Evening, May 24.

The flour market is dull, and prices tending downward, though not materially so. Sales of whole sacks were to-day made at 11.25, 11.35 and 11.60, while small lots changed hands at 12.25. A curious proof of increased value in farming implements was to-day given by the sale of a large quantity of ox-bows, at from 2.62 to 2.75 each, which last fall sold at 50 cts, and could hardly be given away in quantity. Sales of sperm oil were to day made at 1.70, 1.62 and 1.40 per gallon, and on latter price remainder was withdrawn. Considerable speculation has been heretofore carried on, in a small article, upon a large scale. The consumption of tacks, for wall papering, &c, is extensive, and every few months some wide-awake Yankee buys out the market clean, and prices are exorbitant until another lot arrives. This has been done twice before, and now, for a third time, profits are tacked on with a vengeance—a paper worth three cents at home, commanding two dollars!

As a general thing, an increased activity in matters of trade, and more buoyancy of feeling in commercial circles, are observable. The emigration to this country to an extent never dreamed of, and the certain supplies required for this immense population, are facts which greatly encourage the mercantile community, who are looking forward to a very prosperous business campaign.

CARD.

☞ IN THE Pacific News of May 20th, there was published a Card, charging me with the utterance of malicious falsehoods, and otherwise assailing my personal reputation by calumnious statements, inuendoes and invectives. The author, Mr. B. R. Buckelew, has been called on for an explanation, and in a manner that would involve the necessity of a reply, or, in the event of a refusal, leave but little doubt of the author's want of honor, courage or gentlemanly principle. Mr. Buckelew has, up to this date, withheld a reply, and there remains but for me to reach him through this, the vehicle of his gratuitous abuse.

For the past three years, Mr. Buckelew has been known in this community as a turbulent and dissentious man, for whose unpopular ambition, misapplied political energies, and vague, questionable talents, common respect has been wanting. It must therefore, under the circumstances, suffice, that I pronounce his Card utterly unprovoked, as it is false, cowardly and calumnious in all its statements, inuendoes and inferences.

PLUMAS CITY.

THIS flourishing town needs no puffing, for there can scarcely be one having been in California one month who is ignorant of the important stand Plumas is to take among her sister townships. Being located so immediately in the midst of the rich mines of Bear river, Dry creek, Rough and Ready, Gold river, Yuba and Deer creek. The rich diggings of the Bear river, just discovered, are within fourteen miles. To all these mines the roads are remarkably level, being over prairie land. The finest red brick clay is there in abundance, and timber to last for ages. Is situated on high land and beyond the possibility of overflow. Ninety-nine of the hundred who cross the plains this year will pass by Truckee river, and pass directly through Johnson's Rancho and Plumas City, where the richest soil and finest gazing land in the world is found. There is every inducement for traders to visit this town for the reason above named, and trade has taken an active start there, and already, although but five weeks since the first building was erected, there now are some twenty large frame buildings finished or nearly so, and occupied for merchandising, hotel, &c., as also as many tent houses.

For the information of those just arriving in the country, the subscribers would state that Plumas City is situated on the east banks of the Feather river, about two and a half miles below Hock Farm, but on the opposite side, and seven miles above Bear river. All the steamers of light draught can run to this point the year round, and without doubt must prove the head of steam navigation through the summer and fall months. In the winter and spring, sail vessels drawing ten to twelve feet water, have no difficulty in navigating as high up the river as Plumas, when close along the banks in front of the town all winter could be found 16 to 22 feet of water. There are already over two hundred persons interested in this town, and increasing daily. Teams and horses are in readiness always to convey miners and their goods into the interior, at the lowest rates. The subscribers have erected their storehouses, and are storing miners trunks and chests for 50 cents per month.

The proprietors are not anxious to sell to speculators, but to actual settlers, who will find liberal inducement.

NEW DAILY Evening Paper in san Francisco—ROBERT D. FOY proposes to establish a daily newspaper in the city of san Francisco, to be issued every afternoon. The design of the paper will be to afford a reliable medium of information on all subjects of general and local interest; also to give full and accurate commercial and shipping intelligence up to the hour of publication each day. In a commercial community like ours, the utility of an evening paper, that will place the transactions of the day before the public immediately, must be apparent.

While the principal aim will be to give to the patrons of the proposed paper all the advantages of a strictly business publication, it should be understood that on questions of a political character, it will always be found a decided advocate of the principles and measures of the great democratic party of the Union.

The first number will appear on or about the first day of June next.

TERMS—$25 per annum, when delivered to city subscribers at their residences, or $20 when mailed—payable in advance. Advertisements inserted, at the usual rates. cxl t

AN ACT

TO PREVENT THE IMPORTATION OF CONVICTS INTO THIS STATE.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. No captain or master of any vessel, or any other person or persons shall knowingly or willingly import, bring or send, or cause or procure to be imported, brought or sent, or be aiding or assisting therein, into this State, by land or water, any felon, convict or person under sentence of death or transportation, or any other legal disability incurred by a criminal prosecution, except for treason, or who shall be delivered or sent to him from any prison or place of confinement in any place without this State.

Sec. 2. Every person who shall offend against any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail, for a term not less than three months, and shall forfeit and pay moreover the sum of one thousand dollars for each of such convicts so imported, brought or sent into this State; one half of which penalty shall go to him or her who shall sue or prosecute for the same, and the other half to the county in which such prosecution shall be had.

Sec. 3. This act to take effect and be in force from and after thirty days' publication of the same in the "Pacific News."

Speaker of the House of Assembly.

EMPIRE CITY.

FOR Sonorian Camp, Wood's Diggings, Sullivan's, Hawkins's and Don Pedro's Bars, head waters of Tuolumne, Mercedes, and Mariposa Rivers; also, to head waters of san Joaquin and King's River FREIGHT OR PASSAGE TO EMPIRE CITY, TUOLUMNE. DURFEE & TOWNSEND have established a daily line of sailing vessels from san Francisco to the above city, situated on the south-easterly bank of the Tuolumne river, thirty-five miles above its mouth, and are prepared to carry freight or passengers.

This route is the only one which can be really said to extend, by water, to the very gold field. The city stands at the head of navigation on the Tuolumne river, where the low hills of the Sierra Nevada meet the plains of the san Joaquin, and is not only accessable by sufficient water at all seasons of the year, but the roads to the mines, from that point, are good in wet or dry weather. Goods shipped to Empire City, Tuolumne, save from 25 to 60 miles of land carriage over any other depot for that gold region, avoiding soft roads, expensive ferriage, and personal discomfort.

Persons shipping goods, or taking passage, may rely upon promptness in dispatch, speed in transit, and great saving in time and expense.

For freight or passage, apply to messrs. Turner, Fish & co., foot of Jackson street, san Francisco, or to the subscribers, Empire City, Tuolumne. April 29, 1850.
cxxxii tf Durfee & Townsend.

EMPIRE AND CRESCENT CITIES.

THE survey of this town being completed at the head of navigation on the Tuolumne river, and numerous lots sold and houses erected, designed originally to bear the name of Crescent city, the subscribers, owners of lots in said town, learning that a plot of ground on the northwesterly bank of said river, two miles below, surveyed and laid out last year, still insists upon its rights and advantages as a place for a city, have concluded to leave to the town plot alluded to the beautiful name of Cresent city, and adopt one quite as appropriate, if not so beautiful.—Henceforth, therefore, we claim the name of Empire city. The map will be deposited in the proper offices, and the change in name noted.

Empire city stands on the southeasterly bank of the Tuolumne river, and is the only point accessible by water at all seasons, immediately contiguous to the gold fields of Tuolumne, Merced, Mariposa and San Joaquin rivers. It is at the head of navigation on the Tuolumne river, 35 miles from its mouth. Those persons wishing a settlement in the country are desired to visit it, and examine its advantages over any of its competitors. Signed—Philo Durfee, Edwin D. Townsend, Wm. J. Marcy, W. H. Willson, Joseph E. Miller, Wm. M Rowlett, Thomas J. L. Smiley, David Turner, Edward S. Townsend, Edward Conway, Henry E Perrine, J. B Lattimer.

TO THE PUBLIC.

SEMI-WEEKLY PAPER AT MARYSVILLE.

THE UNDERSIGNED is about to establish a semi-weekly newspaper at the town of Marysville, under the title of the MARYSVILLE HERALD. In politics its position will be independent. Bound to none, it will lend what influence it may have to all such measures as the necessities of the State may demand, without regard to their origin. It will aim to be a medium of correct information from the Northern mines, in the very heart of which it is to be published; while, as an instrument by which men of business in San Francisco and Sacramento city, can make themselves known to their REAL customers, it will have no superior in California, for its circulation will be confined almost wholly to the miners, upon whom the merchants and dealers must to a large extent rely for their success. For the miners, who are unabe to obtain papers from the Atlantic States, full abstracts of all important sayings and doings at home will be given, together with whatever else occasion and fitness may demand. It is proposed to issue the first number on or about the first of June.
